HISTORY

ABOUT SUTRACO GROUP

Sutraco Group is owned by Revie Christianto Gozali, William Januar Tedjo, Gabriel Rudolfo Gonga, and Marco Christino Gozali. Spearheaded by these four young entrepreneurs, we aim to become a partner that provides the best solution in meeting raw material needs within the food industry. To achieve this goal, our business operates under streamlined processes and proficient company management.

Our group set up in 2011 specialized in the gracilaria seaweed commerce. Gaining experience in seaweed trading and cultivation, the four aforementioned founders decided to expand their business' horizon and branch into other types of seaweed as well as other natural commodities.

2011 Ran under PT Yonkou Indonesia.

2015 Established PT Sutraco Nusantara Megah in Surabaya, East Java, Indonesia. Oversaw the 200-hectare land dedicated to gracilaria seaweed farming and management in Pamekasan, Madura. Applied a distinct seaweed cultivation method which enabled the finest harvest quality and sustainable quantity. Explored other potential sea products and spices due to unprecedented growth.

2016 Acquired HACPP Certification

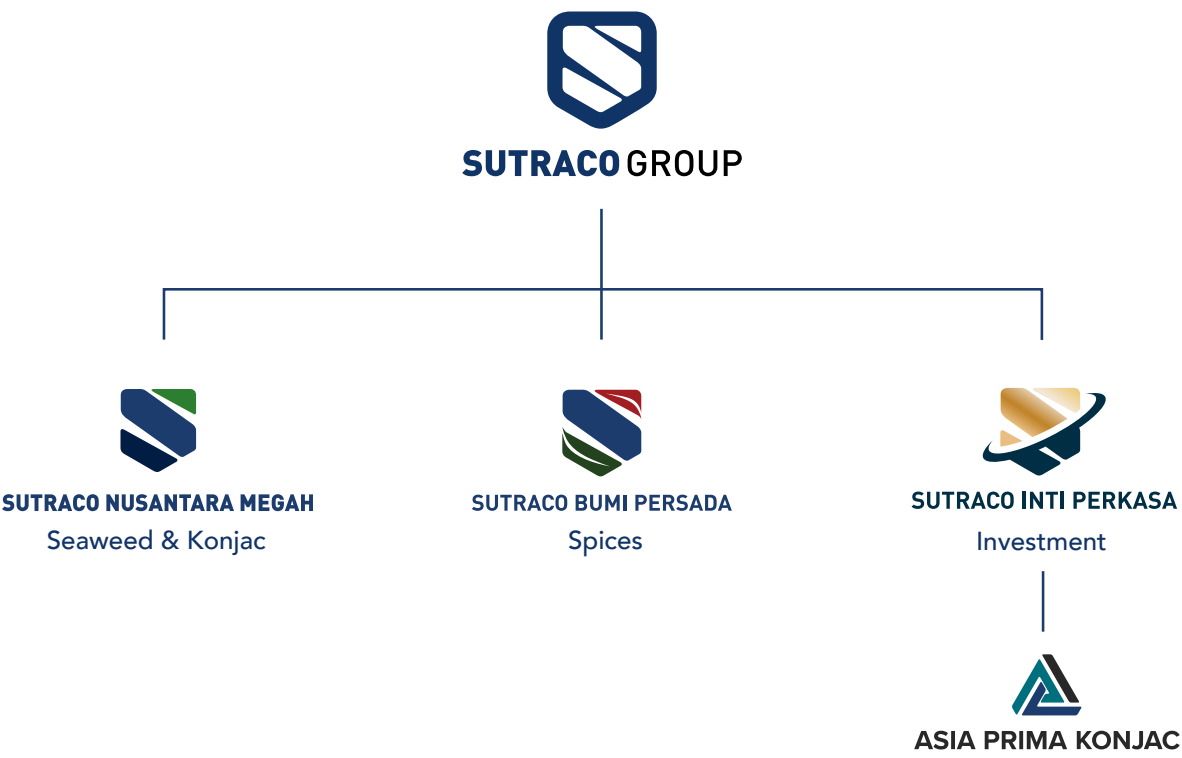

2017 Founded an investment company named PT Sutraco Inti Perkasa. Built PT Asia Prima Konjac and installed an integrated konjac manufacturer in Madiun, East Java, Indonesia.

2019 Established PT Sutraco Bumi Persada which specialized in spices.

Sutraco Group assumes responsibility in providing and maintain our farmers' welfare. We cooperate with local farmers and seek to improve their quality of life, thus bringing about flourishing communities around the areas in which we are based. We believe our farmers' well-being plays a positive role in maintaining our product's quality and in satisfying our loyal customers.

Sutraco Group continues to place confidence in the prospects of Indonesia's rich natural resources, and strives to provide only the best to food industries all over the world.
